

Master of Arts in Psychology

Marriage and Family Therapy: 63 Units

The goal of the Psychology program at UWest is to integrate the wisdom of both Eastern and Western perspectives in the field to understand the human mind and conditions. The 63-unit Master of Arts in Psychology – Marriage and Family Therapy prepares students to meet requirements for California licensure to provide psychotherapy as Marriage and Family Therapists (MFT). The program focuses on the intersection between Buddhist psychology and Western multicultural and recovery-oriented evidence-based practice in helping individuals, couples, families, and group.

Beyond having mastered standard MFT competencies, UWest graduates are

- grounded in Recovery-Oriented Practice, putting clients at the heart of treatment, focusing upon co-creating a life worth living;
- well-practiced at making ethical decisions from the overlapping lenses of multiculturalism, Buddhist psychology, and biomedical/behavioral health law and ethics;
- clinically and personally skilled in contemplative practice;
- versed in effective practices that borrow heavily from Buddhist psychology, such as Mindfulness-Based Stress Reduction, Mindfulness-Based Cognitive Therapy, Acceptance and Commitment Therapy, Compassion Focused Therapy, and Dialectical Behavioral Therapy Skills Training;
- trained in the fundamentals of Emotionally Focused Therapy for couples; and
- experienced in the applications of Interpersonal Neurobiology from the inside out.

The university takes pride in offering small teacher-student ratio, diversity, and individual attention in the classroom as the faculty nurtures all aspects of the therapist's personhood, particularly intrapersonal awareness, interpersonal and multicultural knowledge, and the skills to turn this awareness and knowledge into helpful interactions with others. In 2015, UWest's MA in Psychology was ranked as the ninth most affordable graduate psychology program in the United States.

The program is aligned to the requirements of California Business and Professions Code Section 4980.37, as regulated by the California Board of Behavioral Sciences (BBS). Coursework prepares students for the California MFT license examinations, and to meet best practices outlined by the American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy and the California Association of Marriage and Family Therapists. More information about the MFT license can be found at <http://www.bbs.ca.gov>.

Fostering Professionalism

This is a professional training program and students are expected to consistently demonstrate professional behavior. This includes but is not limited to:

- Being on time to class and with assignments
- Respectfully interacting with students and faculty
- Proactively engaging in learning process and assignments
- Being organized and prepared
- Managing paperwork and technology effectively
- Managing personal crises effectively
- Managing personal information (own and others') appropriately (e.g., confidentiality)

These standards pertain to all Psychology graduate courses. Students who fail to meet these standards may be unable to progress in the program.

Program Learning Outcomes

Wisdom & Skillful Means

Students are thoroughly prepared for academic and professional success.

Knowledge	Students demonstrate the knowledge needed to synthesize various psychotherapeutic approaches. Students describe and explain the ethics and laws pertaining to mental health services for MFTs. Students list and discuss the various psychotherapeutic theoretical approaches and corresponding diagnostic and intervention techniques.
Praxis	Students conduct thorough intake interviews including suicide assessments, summarize the themes of the interview, and identify goals and potential treatment plans for therapy. Students demonstrate competency in the assessment, detection, and intervention for spousal abuse as well as for abuse reporting for all categories.
Ethics	Students effectively apply MFT field ethics, and state and federal laws to case vignettes and in vivo counseling sessions.
Critical Thinking	Students apply critical and creative thinking, skeptical inquiry and, when possible, the scientific method to discern, evaluate, and criticize specific issues in psychology.
Communication	Students clearly articulate their study of psychology in writing and speech.

Self-Awareness

Students are prepared to engage in an ongoing process of self-understanding that enables them to lead happy, purposeful lives characterized by healthy relationships to self and others.

Character	Students are fully present, mindfully aware of the moment, during client sessions.
Expression	Students express an increased level of self-awareness as it applies to their role as therapists, including an understanding of and ability to articulate their own cultural values and biases.
Relationship	Students demonstrate case conceptualizations that reflect a refined understanding of the impact that their own cultural identities and related values have on the therapeutic process (specifically the therapeutic alliance/relationship).

Liberation

Students recognize the diversity and dignity of all human beings and understand their own role in the pursuit of social justice.

Pluralism	Students develop cultural responsiveness in terms of intake, diagnosis, treatment planning, and intervention selection.
Liberation from Suffering	Students discuss the various types of privilege and oppression that often arise for select cultural identities, such as select racial and ethnic groups, socioeconomic status, gender, sexual orientation, age, and physical and mental ability.

Interdependence

Students possess a holistic understanding of global interdependence in order to cultivate compassionate thought, speech, and action in service to themselves, others, and the environment.

Service	Students recognize their ability to increase wellness and reduce suffering of self and others through service-oriented activities.
Culture	Students demonstrate an appreciation for diverse cultures as it applies to the therapeutic process and outcome and can identify potential limitations in mainstream Western psychological practices.
Interconnectedness	Students demonstrate an awareness of the impact their thought, speech, and behavior have on others, especially on their clients.

Internship/Clinical Education: 6 units required

Students are required to gain 6 units of fieldwork (practicum) at an approved practicum site. Upon completion of 18 units of coursework students may seek the chair's approval to pursue a practicum. All fieldwork and practica placements must be approved by the department chair and training director before training begins.

Training sites must have a written contract with UWest indicating the commitment to abide by the supervisory conditions required for the pre-MFT licensure requirements, as guided by California's Board of Behavioral Sciences (BBS).

Students entering an approved practicum must enroll in PSYCH 700 and PSYCH 710 in consecutive terms. Students collecting supervised hours for graduation and for licensure must maintain continuous enrollment by enrolling in PSYCH 702 (during summer sessions) or PSYCH 712 (following completion of PSYCH 710).

Courses	Prerequisite(s)	Units
PSYCH 700 Practicum	18 units and chair's approval	3
PSYCH 702 Intersession Practicum	18 units and chair's approval	1
PSYCH 710 Advanced Practicum	PSYCH 700	3

Comprehensive Exam

All students are required to pass a comprehensive exam to graduate, usually taken at the start of their final semester. The comprehensive examination is offered annually during the spring semester. Eligible students are notified by their advisor of the specific exam dates each year, and should be prepared to take the exam when it is offered. Students must be enrolled in spring semester to test and to graduate.

Students enroll in PSYCH699B for 0 units if completing the exam concurrently with coursework and/or practica. If all coursework and practica are complete, students enroll in PSYCH699B for 1 unit to maintain active status.

If students are unable to take the exam when it is initially offered, or if they must repeat the exam, they have a second and final opportunity to complete it within the same spring semester. If a student is unable to retake the exam at this time, they must wait until the following spring to sit for the exam.

Courses	Prerequisite(s)	Units
PSYCH 699B Comprehensive Exam	Completion of all coursework; Chair's approval	0-1
PSYCH 699A Thesis	Completion of all coursework; Chair's approval	3

Specialization Courses (Optional)

While specialization courses are not degree applicable, students may choose to take these courses to increase expertise, expand their CV/resume, and acquire training unavailable elsewhere. Chair's approval is required. Units earned for these courses will not be applied to graduation requirements.

To ensure that enrollment in specialization courses does not interfere with sequenced completion of required coursework, most specialization courses are offered only during summer sessions. If taken during the fall or spring semester, the specialization course must be in addition to all courses required for that term.

In addition to the courses listed below, students may select specialization courses from courses offered in MA Religious Studies and MDiv Buddhist Chaplaincy. Availability of courses varies based on department schedules. A sample list of Buddhist Psychology specialization courses is provided.

Graduation Requirements

Students are expected to complete graduation requirements in a timely manner and to maintain good standing.

Students must complete course and program requirements as listed for a total of 63 units with a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.0 and pass a comprehensive exam. A minimum grade of B is required for all courses applied to graduation. Students who do not earn a passing grade as specified may repeat that course one time only to achieve a passing grade. All coursework must be at the graduate level; graduate courses previously applied to a bachelor's degree cannot be applied to graduation.

Degrees are awarded at the close of the semester in which all degree requirements have been completed, the comprehensive exam has been passed, the Petition to Graduate form has been filed with the registrar's office, and the graduation fee has been paid.

Credit Limits: Students may apply no more than 6 units (two courses) of Directed Reading & Research and 6 units (two courses) of independent study towards graduation. Students are allowed no more than 12 units of unfinished coursework (i.e. incompletes and withdrawals) over the duration of the program.

Transfer of Credit: Up to 6 units may be fulfilled through the transfer of graduate credit from another institution.

Master of Arts in Psychology

Multicultural Counseling: 42 Units

The 42-unit Master of Arts in Psychology – Multicultural Counseling (MCC) is designed for individuals wanting to pursue a graduate degree in mental health but who are not interested in licensure. This degree is open to students with a baccalaureate degree in an unrelated field, those who earned a baccalaureate many years ago, those already working in the human services field who desire additional training, and for international students desiring an introduction to mental health care.

The 42-unit MCC does not meet the requirements to sit for a license in Marriage and Family Therapy (MFT) or Licensed Professional Clinical Counselor (LPCC) in any state. California State regulations state that students who complete and receive the 42-unit master's degree cannot, post-graduation, transfer or apply those credits toward the completion of an MFT license program.
